DELAWARE COMMITTEE ON CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM

Wednesday, September 27, 2017, 1:30 p.m. -3:30 p.m.

[Location]

AGENDA

1:30 -1:45 p.m.

Welcome & Agenda Review

Co-Chairs will give a brief welcome and review the meeting agenda.

1:45 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.

Implementation Science

Drawing in implementation science, Roger Przybylski will facilitate a discussion on the work of implementation, including changing the behavior of human service professionals, organizational cultures and climates, and the thinking of policy makers to facilitate high-quality implementation and sustainability, in the context of Delaware's reentry reform initiative.

2:15 p.m. -3:15 p.m.

Workgroup Report-Outs & Discussion of Initial Recommendations

The three NCJRP Workgroups (Evidence-Based Practices, Data and Evaluation, and Reentry) will provide a brief update of the status and progress of their work. The Reentry Workgroup subgroups (Housing, Education, Employment and Behavioral Health) will also provide status reports. This session includes time for questions and a facilitated discussion of Workgroup findings and preliminary recommendations for consideration and input from the Committee.

3:15 p.m. -3:30 p.m.

Next Steps and Adjourn

This session will include a discussion of the plan for the next several months, reminder of materials available to Committee members via the project Dropbox, and the Project Deliverables under development.
